

MISSISSIPPI URBAN FOREST COUNCIL

Bloom Town Mississippi Training

February 21, 2018

MS Craft Center, 950 Rice Road, Ridgeland, MS 39157

11AM-4PM

$50 per person

What: Learn how to put year round color in your community with trees, shrubs and flowers. Also, learn about cut flower and pollinator gardening, weed barriers and mulches, using rain barrel irrigation systems. Inspire homeowners and business owners to contribute to the enhancement of your town. You will learn how to develop resources to help you with local projects

Who: Invite your city leaders, city employees and civic groups that contribute to the beautification and green revitalization of your community.

Featuring:

Best of: 5 trees, 5 shrubs, 10 perennials, 10 annuals for color in your town.

Guest Speakers: Garden Mama, Nellie Neal and Tim Burgess "Pollinator King"

"The MUFC provides all the information and opportunities needed to develop and sustain green areas and blooming plant beds". Bettie Ray, Assistant to Mayor, Greenwood

Register three ways: 1. Email dyowell@aol.com. 2. Call/text to (601) 672-0755
3. Register on FB Messenger at Mississippi Urban Forest Council.

Who will benefit: City leaders, city employees that oversee parks and other green spaces, civic groups that help with city beautification, urban foresters, landscape architects, businesses and neighborhood associations.

Cost: $50 per person, Purchase Orders accepted. MUFC members get 10% discount. Continuing education credits for elected officials, parks and rec, foresters, landscape architects and others.

For more information on our programs please visit our web site at www.msurbanforest.com and contact our executive director, Donna Yowell on ways you can enhance your community, home or business property with trees and healthy landscapes.

You may contact Donna at (601) 672-0755, dyowell@msurbanforest.com or FB, Mississippi Urban Forest Council.

We look forward to working with you on making Mississippi Communities Better.

Sincerely,
Donna Yowell, Executive Director and
Tim Waldrup, MUFC President