

LeadersLink Tommy Longo Disaster Leadership Award

LeadersLink is establishing an annual nationwide award to recognize an elected official at the city or county level whose efforts have enabled his or her community to recover successfully from a disaster. It is named in honor of LeadersLink's first disaster mentor, former Waveland, Mississippi Mayor Tommy Longo, who passed away in March and spent years coaching communities around the country through the disaster recovery process.

Who is eligible to be nominated for this award?

Any individual elected to office at the city or county level of a community that suffered physical damage following a disaster sometime in the past 10 years.

Who may submit nominations for this award?

Any individual or organization interested or involved in city/county governance, community emergency preparedness or disaster recovery. Individuals may self-nominate for this award.

Where are the nominations to be sent?
